From the Vicar ...

“How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live together in unity!”

Psalm 133 vs1

There are many Saints that are celebrated in October and one of those is St. Wilfrid. He became Archbishop of York and he is remembered on 12th October. He was known for bringing the Roman Catholic church and the Anglo Saxon church together. At our recent Churches Together in Easingwold and District (CTED) annual service, the speaker, Fr Henry Wansbrough, also spoke with passion about the various ways in which the churches are looking at their similarities to see how the different churches can work together. We are fortunate in Easingwold that the different churches do work well together and the congregation at the service included representatives from all four churches.

Wilfrid was at the Synod of Whitby in 664 AD where the date of Easter was settled. The Celtic church used one date and the Roman Catholics used another. It was decided at this synod to follow the Roman calendar (there is still disagreement between the Orthodox Church and the Roman Catholic Church on this matter). Wilfrid did not have an easy time though; he brought the two sections of the church together but insisted that the Roman Church was in overall authority. He never saw the validity of the Celtic bishops and refused to be consecrated bishop by a Celtic bishop. We can imagine that this must have caused offence, but Wilfrid was able to overcome all of this and unite the church in Britain.

I hope that the next Archbishop of York will be able to help unite the different denominations. The discernment process for him/her is well underway and the church PCC has been asked for its input as to the sort of person to be appointed. I am not sure when the announcement will be made but I hope that the new Archbishop will have the integrity to listen carefully to the other denominations and help us work together worshipping the same God. I hope that he/she says what he/she feels is right and then work with the sections of the community that disagree with him/her and come to an amicable solution.

There were divisions amongst the early Christians and divisions through the centuries but hearing people like Fr Wansbrough helps us to think about our understanding of others and to look at how we can work together.

Every blessing for October

Margaret

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

ADVANCE NOTICE

This year, Remembrance Day falls on Sunday 10th November. As usual there will only be one Eucharistic Service at 9.00am.

If you wish to attend the 10.45am Remembrance Service and are not on the parade, please be seated in church by 10.30am.

If there are any veterans who would like to march with the parade, please turn up on the day at the Market Place ready to leave at 10.15am.

If you have any further questions regarding the parade, please contact John Walker, Chairman of the Easingwold Branch of the Royal British Legion on 01347 822949

ARMISTICE DAY

There will be a service in the Market Place on Monday 11th November. Exact timings are yet to be confirmed but there will be a minute's silence incorporated into the service at 11.00am.

THANK YOU AND MOVING ON

Having finished my training in the benefice of Easingwold with Raskelf, I would like to pass on my thanks for all the support and encouragement that I have received over the years.

I especially would like to thank Rev'd Margaret Young for all the wisdom and knowledge given to me which will be put to good use in my new placement at Skelton with Shipton and Newton, Linton-on-Ouse and Beningbrough.

Over the years of my discernment and working as a deacon, Rev'd Chris Peel has given me constant solid guidance of what is needed in the Diaconal ministry. This has given me a good foundation on which to build, which is invaluable. I am also very grateful that Chris has agreed to continue with this as I discover more about the parishes that I have been called to work in and face new challenges.

I would like to thank you all for the generous gift which will come in handy when I pick up my paint brushes again.

After 39 years association with Easingwold church, it has always encouraged me to see how the Holy Spirit moves people to work together toward a common goal of bringing God's Kingdom here on Earth.

Thank you, God Bless, Rev'd Catherine Toase

“IF YOU GO DOWN TO THE WOODS TODAY”!?

Well, actually, it was at the Easingwold Parish Church Rooms recently, where we were “sure of a big surprise”, in the form of a “Teddy Bears’ Picnic”!

Our ‘Church Mice’ and ‘Ignite’ group youngsters, along with children baptised in the last three years and others, had been invited to come along with their favourite teddy bears, so there was no need to “go in disguise”. They were all “sure of a treat”! And some grown-ups brought their teddies too!

There were “lots of marvellous things to eat and wonderful games to play”, with many toys, trikes to ride and a lawnmower to push. They enjoyed the parable of the lost sheep, acted out with toys, and had an exciting ‘pass the parcel’ game, before tucking into the picnic. There was also a competition, with prizes, for the ‘best-dressed’ and the ‘oldest’ (85 years!) teddy bears.

Our grateful appreciation for a very enjoyable event goes to Rev’d Deacon Charlotte Cranfield, who arranged and led it, with assistance from Parish Church members.

A Service of Music and Readings for All Souls Day at St John the Baptist and
All Saints Church, Easingwold

Easingwold Deanery Ecumenical Choir

Soprano – Alex Cranfield

Baritone – Dean Whitehouse

Organist – Peter Fletcher

Conductor – Peter Smith

Sunday 3rd November at 4 pm

All welcome

Retiring Collection

All singers are warmly invited to join the choir

The rehearsals will be on the following dates at Easingwold Parish Church:

Friday 11th October: 7.30-9.00pm

Friday 18th October: 7.30-9.00pm

Friday 25th October: 7.30-9.00pm

Thursday 31st October: 7.30-9.00pm

You need to have your own copy of the vocal score of Fauré's Requiem. Copies are obtainable from Banks Music in York or on line from RSCM Music Direct (£4.99)

At the beginning of the service, we are going to sing Maurice Greene's anthem – 'Lord, let me know mine end'. Copies available from Banks or RSCM (£2.80)

It is not compulsory for choir members to attend all the rehearsals, depending on availability and familiarity with the Requiem

If you would like to join the choir for this service, to assist with planning, please contact Peter Smith on 01347 823843 or email at petersmith41@btinternet.com

We need your milk bottle tops

Members of J.A.M. (Jesus and Me) Youth Group who meet in the COZIE Centre are collecting plastic milk bottle tops for charity. There is a box at the back of Easingwold Church where they may be deposited for passing on to the group.

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer is at the heart of what the church is about and the prayer corner in St John's continues to be used regularly. Please write the names of people you would like to be remembered in the book there. We also have a prayer chain, where a number of people pray for those in special need. If you would like prayers for yourself or another, in church or on our confidential Prayer Circle, please contact Deacon Lottie Cranfield on 824399.

Please include in your prayers this month:

1. Those unsung heroes in the area who raise money for a variety of charities during the year; the Shoe Box appeal
2. All who make music for our enjoyment; those who belong to the amateur dramatics
3. All businesses situated along Long Street;
4. Raskelf village hall and its activities

WEEKLY ENVELOPES DONOR RECORDS

Will the church funds donor using envelope number 18 please contact the Honorary Treasurer (Bill Henebury on 01347 239178) and inform him of your name and address in order to remedy a gap in our records.

Thank you.

OASIS Café

at the Methodist Church on Chapel Street

Friday 25th October 2019

Our OASIS café is open once again and is ready to welcome you if you come. It is our pleasure to serve you tea, coffee or hot chocolate, made as you like it. This month we support another worthwhile local organisation—EDDCA—who provide so many people with much needed voluntary support. The introduction of the minibus has been an invaluable service for everyone from cancer sufferers to those who would not get out on their own. Please come and support them.

Shoe Boxes 2019

It's that time of year again when we are beginning to think about filling shoe boxes for Samaritan's Purse. These boxes are so appreciated by the children who receive them and we send them to a variety of countries overseas.

- ◆ The supplied boxes (and information leaflets) will be available this month from the back of church, or you can cover an ordinary shoe box with Christmas paper if you prefer.
- ◆ There are five categories of gifts that can be included in your box – to wear (e.g. hats and gloves); to eat (sweets must have a far ahead best before date; no chocolate as it melts!); toiletries (e.g. soap, toothpaste); anything educational (e.g. pens, paper, colouring books); and something for fun (e.g. small toy, hair clips). Please look at the back of church for items given by others to be used to help fill your box – especially knitteds from the Knit and Natter Group and friends of the church.
- ◆ Please read the leaflet carefully as there are some items which cannot be included e.g. liquids of any kind, stuffed hand-knitted toys and war toys.

There will be no charge for the empty box but if you are able to include the suggested donation for transport that would be helpful. HOWEVER, if that is too much to ask when you are providing the contents of your box don't worry, still fill your box.

If you are not filling a shoe box, or providing bits for others to use in theirs, please could you consider giving a donation which would help towards the cost of the boxes and the £5 that has to be added to each box for carriage. Please put any donation in an envelope labelled "Shoe Boxes" and hand it in at church. These boxes give such joy to those who receive them.

Have you discovered Easingwold Community Library yet?

The library is run by volunteers with the support of NYCC and we would love to see you. The library is free to join and explore. Your library card gives you access to books, audio books, DVDs and also e-books, e-magazines and digital audio books via the NYCC website. We run various activities for all age groups and welcome new ideas and volunteers.

Home Library and Information Service (HLIS)

This free service is ideal if you find it difficult to get to the Library, carry books comfortably or if you are a busy carer. You can opt in and out so it is ideal if you are recovering from illness or cannot get out in bad weather. Our volunteers will select items to suit your tastes (including large print and children's books) and they can either be collected from the library by a friend or relative or we can deliver directly to your home every two weeks. Our friendly delivery volunteers cover Easingwold and all the surrounding villages.

To find out more please visit Easingwold Community Library in the Market Place or ring 01609 534584 (rings directly to Easingwold).

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP NOTES

We are all encouraged to read the Bible to help us in our spiritual journey. Where do we start? It is quite daunting. This is where the Bible Reading Fellowship can help us. 'New Daylight' is a daily reading of a short section from the Bible with an explanation of the reading. This helps the reader to understand it, and it makes life easier for us because we don't have to find it in the Bible ourselves.

Please contact Gina Smith, either in Church or by phone. (01347 823843). She can show you examples, and, if you decide you would like to try it, she will order it for you and deliver it. It only costs £13.80 a year for 365 daily readings – less than 4p a day.

Recycle crisp packets

Place these items in the box provided in the Parish Church They will be taken to St Nicks (St Nicholas Fields) an Environmental Charity in York.

They will send them for recycling to Terracycle. This helps to raise funds for St Nicks charity (£4,000 last year), as well as reducing the waste in your bin.
