What do we know about the Queen? Probably a lot more than we used to after all that has been in the news recently. She was our Queen, Supreme Governor of the Church of England and Defender of the Faith. Those of you in the Forces, and me as a priest, will have sworn allegiance to her.

But there is also a very human side to her: mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt, cousin - the list goes on. She loved her family dearly. We can get bogged down with her titles and how long that she lived but whenever I take a funeral I ask the family to think of occasions where the person's personality has shown through and so to commemorate the Queen I decided to think along the same lines.

The Queen was a well-loved lady who also loved. She loved her family, she loved her animals, she loved her friends but also she loved her country.

So, how will we remember the Queen?

Her Smile: The Queen had a lovely smile with a twinkle in her eye. She had the art of smiling when perhaps she didn't want to and still make it look genuine. Her life wasn't always easy, she had the bad times as well as the good. She faced harsh criticism and was not always happy with what was going on in her family, yet she was still able to smile in public.

Her Hats: For formal occasions, she wore beautiful hats that matched her outfits but she was also just as comfortable casually dressed whilst walking the dogs or riding her horse, controversially wearing a headscarf and not a riding hat. Her love of animals was very apparent and I think that she learned from the animals. They treated her like they would have any other human being. They were her companions. This is something that many of us can relate to. So her hats, lovely as they are, were a sign of her being on duty but her scarf was more indicative of what she loved doing.

Her Handbag: Another symbol of the Queen. Who knows what was in it? A secret? A bit like the Queen in many ways. We see what is on show but there is part of her that is hidden away.

Her Sense of Humour: As she got older, we learnt more about the Queen too. She had a sense of humour. The London Olympics provided the first example with 007 where she supposedly parachuted her way into the stadium. At her Platinum Jubilee she had tea with Paddington Bear. The video showed how warm she could be, she didn't just do paperwork, and go on walkabouts. She knew about life, she read books, she would have read to her children and grandchildren and maybe to her great grandchildren. She would very likely have read Paddington Bear and, as we discovered, her handbag contained an emergency marmalade sandwich!

Her Faith: We have slowly found out more about her, and one thing that she talked about more over the years was her faith. Her title was Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England. She talked more of her belief in God and how it affected her life. The Queen made it very clear that God was a huge influence in her life. In her life she put the country first and she did this through her faith in God.

She knew that she wasn't perfect, no one is but her faith guided her life, helped her in her decisions. Her faith would let her know that when she made a mistake, she was forgiven. For the Queen, going to church was important. It was an opportunity to give herself time to be with her maker, who died for her and who has forgiven her for the things that she had done wrong.

People have commented to me that they won't come to church because they feel they are not good enough. Church is exactly the place that they should be. It is for people to say sorry for what they have done wrong. The Queen was human, she will have made mistakes but through her faith she knew that she would be accountable to God for what she has done and be forgiven through the love of Christ.

Every blessing for October,

Margaret

Statement by the Archbishop of York on the death of Her Majesty The Queen

I join with many throughout our country and beyond as we mourn the death of Her Majesty The Queen. Throughout her long reign, and in all the confusions and challenges of a changing world, Her Majesty has been a constant, faithful presence.

In 2014, Her Majesty remarked, "Christ's example has taught me to seek, to respect and value all people of whatever faith or none." The Queen's gift to engage with everyone whom she met and the ability to make them feel at ease was a remarkable skill and one which showed a deep connection to the people she served and a desire to live out Jesus' teaching. On the occasions I had the pleasure of meeting Her Majesty, I can testify to the warmth and joy she brought to every occasion. But most of all, it was the resolute reality of her faith that struck me powerfully.

In Her Majesty's first Christmas broadcast, ahead of her Coronation she asked the nation, whatever their religion, to pray that God would give her wisdom and strength to carry out the solemn promise she would be making and to faithfully serve God and us all the days of her life. That is most definitely a prayer that has been answered. Her service to our nation and Commonwealth has been exemplified by her devotion to her duty, which has always been offered with joy. Underpinning this has been her deep faith in God and in her we have witnessed God's faithfulness at work.

Her Majesty leaves a remarkable legacy which not only lives on in this country, but stretches across the Commonwealth and the rest of the world. Her desire to bring people together and use her role to build up communities and wider society has been a cornerstone of her reign.

Do join me in praying for members of the Royal Family over the coming weeks as the God who sustained Her Majesty throughout her life, guides them and brings them comfort. Above all, we pray also for our new King in the responsibilities that now rest upon him.

The Queen was not shy in speaking of her faith and the hope and strength she found in Jesus Christ. At the heart of the good news of God is that through the death and resurrection of his son Jesus, the promise of new and eternal life is offered to us all. This belief, this hope, sustained our Queen and as she rejoices in that promise fulfilled so we too can draw comfort and hope from it. Many of us will struggle to imagine the life of our nation without the Queen. Her constancy and faithfulness has been deeply reassuring in a world that has changed so much. We give thanks for the Queen's example, devotion and huge achievements. She found stability, perseverance and confidence in Jesus Christ who was the source of her hope and peace. May that also be true for each of us and for our nation; and may our dearly departed Queen rest in peace and rise in glory.

The Most Reverend Stephen Cottrell
Archbishop of York

God of love,
We thank you for the life of The Queen,
for her service to our nation,
and for her faith in you.
Be close to all of us who mourn,
that we may find comfort and hope
in your love,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

A Prayer for the new Monarch,

HM King Charles III

Everlasting God, we pray for our new King.
Bless his reign and the life of our nation.
Help us to work together
so that truth and justice, harmony and fairness
flourish among us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

COMMEMORATION SERVICE

A special commemoration service marking the death of Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II was held at our Parish Church on Sunday 18th September.

The service began with organist Peter Smith playing chorale preludes by J. S. Bach and Elgar's "Nimrod" from "Enigma Variations". Hymns sung were: "As pants the hart for cooling streams", "The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want", "Immortal, invisible, God only wise" and "O God, our help in ages past".

The reading, delivered by David Kenworthy QPM DL Deputy Lieutenant of North Yorkshire, was from Revelation 21.1-7. Rev'd Lottie led the congregation in prayer beginning with the Lord's Prayer and further prayers read by Benjamin Lynam, a student of Outwood Academy, Easingwold.

Rev'd Margaret gave an enlightening sermon (much of it included in her letter at the beginning of this issue), talking about the Queen's love of her family, her animals, her country and, most importantly, her faith in God.

The service concluded with the National Anthem.

Christian Meditation

Most Fridays at 2.30 pm to 3.15 pm at the Galtres Centre Function Room

It includes periods of music and silent meditation

In today's culture this is an opportunity of being together in a reflective mood including silence. After a brief period of spoken reflection we experience some reflective music. We then enter a period of silent meditation for about 20-25 minutes. Some people use a mantra such as "Maranatha" (Come Lord Jesus). This has 4 beats and fits a breathing in and out (said twice). Others, or no mantras, are used - but not spoken. After this, another period of music precedes a final prayer. It doesn't suit everyone but it is something worth trying. Sometimes we have a few comments, even laughter, afterwards!

In today's busy-ness people often find this simple and yet cathartic. Even children in school use silence as a restful experience!

Perhaps, give it a try? Join us, you are most welcome.

From Rev'd Lottie

Prayer is always important and is something we can all do daily. We pray for ourselves and our family, for the troubled world, for our church and community. Every month - the second Saturday - you have the opportunity to join with others from the churches in Easingwold to pray.

We meet at The New Inn (Morning Coffee—Afternoon Tea) on Long Street.

Arrive from 8.45am for coffee/tea.

Prayer begins at 9.00am for approximately 30 minutes.

We would love you to come and join us on Saturday 8th October from 8.45am

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer is at the heart of what the church offers to the community, and the prayer corner in St John the Baptist and All Saints' is used regularly. It is a space where you are able to write the names of people you would like to have remembered in the book there. At St John the Baptist and All Saints', we join with you in your prayers for family, friends and all for whom you care. If you would like prayers for yourself or another, or for those who, at this time, are struggling with anxiety, loneliness and isolation, our small, confidential and dedicated circle of people will pray for you/them.

If you would like prayers, please contact Reverend Lottie Cranfield on 07807 941528.

Please include in your prayers this month:

- ♦ Those unsung heroes in the area who raise money for a variety of charities during the year; the Shoebox appeal
- ♦ All who make music for our enjoyment; those who belong to the amateur dramatics
- ♦ All businesses situated along Long Street
- ♦ Raskelf village hall and its activities

Open The Book at Easingwold Primary School

Open the Book (OtB) offers primary school children an opportunity to hear key Bible stories told by a team of Christians from local churches, who present the stories during assemblies or acts of collective worship. Each presentation takes around 10–15 minutes and can be incorporated into a wider school assembly, or can be stand-alone.

Our team at Easingwold is looking for more volunteers to join them and present at the local primary school over one or two sessions per month during term time.

Forthcoming dates are

13th October, 3rd and 17th November, 1st and 15th December.

If you would like to become involved, please contact

PCC TREASURER VACANCY

THE PCC IS LOOKING FOR SOMEONE TO TAKE ON THE ROLE OF TREASURER

Initially this would involve working alongside the present Treasurer, Bill Henebury, for the next few months and then fully take over the role. Bill is currently supported by Kamal Antoun and Peter Simpson who are happy to continue in their roles during the transitional period and thereafter.

If you are interested, please contact
vicar@easingwoldraskelfanglican.org
 or Bill Henebury on 01347 239178

POPPIES FOR REMEMBRANCE DAY

We are hoping to do something different this year which involves knitted poppies (or crocheted) or even made from felt or foam. We want to display them over the balcony in church and at the Memorial in the Market Place but we need 1000s of poppies. We will be very grateful for any that we get and it doesn't matter on the quality so the odd dropped stitch won't matter as it won't show. Poppies can be brought to church.

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP NOTES

We are all encouraged to read the Bible to help us in our spiritual journey. Where do we start? It is quite daunting. This is where the Bible Reading Fellowship can help us. 'New Daylight' is a daily reading of a short section from the Bible with an explanation of the reading. This helps the reader to understand it, and it makes life easier for us because we don't have to find it in the Bible ourselves.

Please contact Gina, either in Church or by phone. (01347 823843). She can show you examples, and, if you decide you would like to try it, she will order it for you and deliver it. It only costs £13.80 a year for 365 daily readings – less than 4p a day.

We are a coffee shop and licenced restaurant in the community of Easingwold.

Driven by our Christian faith we support the community in offering voluntary placements and funding to local organisations.

They have included overseas placements, local school football kits, the local cricket club and local charities.

The restaurant is a development of the business within the community.

The building allows us to facilitate local groups for events.
