From the Vicar ...

What a year that we have had! COVID-19 has dominated the news when we were probably expecting Brexit to do so. People have not been able to see families when they desperately wanted to do so, and holidays have taken place in Britain rather than abroad. These were all unexpected events. I hope that some good will come from all of this. I would hope that science has progressed and techniques for finding vaccines will have moved on.

On a personal level, our lives have been influenced more by the internet and our computers. How many more people are doing their shopping online instead of in person? How many are keeping in touch by video links to family and friends that didn't use to? It is not as good as seeing people in person, but it is far better than not seeing them at all.

If we go back over 2000 years, we come across another time when a normal year was changed by an event which would affect the world. It was during the time of Herod Archelaus. He was the one who ordered the killing of the innocent children. It wasn't a pleasant time to live in but there came a special year which changed people's lives with the birth of Jesus Christ. God incarnate came to earth and there was hope.

"In Him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it."

John 1:4-5

It is hard to imagine exactly what life was like for people then. They wanted change and this boy would give them an opportunity of a better life. Some hoped that He would overthrow the authorities and rid them of Roman rule, but this baby would offer so much more than that. This baby was the light in the darkness, God here on earth, experiencing the everyday things that we all experience; disagreements with parents, and I am sure that there must have been some sibling rivalry going on.

This baby brought the hope of eternal life and the challenge for us to make heaven here on earth. This baby let us know that God is here on earth at all times and in all places. He is there in the hospitals, He is there with the grieving families and He is there in the joy of opening presents on Christmas Day. He is there working through us, so that we help others. By virtue of our baptism we have the mission to do God's work making His kingdom come here on earth.

So this Christmas, no matter how strange it will be, we have the joy of the birth of the Christ child, who lived as a human and had compassion. He understands our loneliness, our heartache and our fears. He came with the message of love and peace.

May the peace of the Lord be with us all this Christmas,

Margaret

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Sadly, there will be no Christmas card board in church this year so, for those of us who wish to send Christmas Blessings to our church friends please, when reading this, think of all your friends and wish them

Christmas Blessings and a Happier and Healthy New Year

Margaret and Tim, Lottie and Rob and Chris and Ian

THANK YOU

This year has been challenging for us all. Restricted from being with our families and friends; the elderly and vulnerable being isolated resulting in feelings of loneliness and being abandoned by those they love.

Margaret, Chris and Lottie have worked so hard to keep in touch with everyone which has been appreciated by all of us. Indeed, organising our services of worship have been a huge challenge for the clergy and new skills have had to be learnt as well as caring for parishioners.

Thanks also to Tim who has been instrumental in setting up the technical environment for providing online services, initially from the Vicarage and then from the Parish Church.

Sadly, it looks as though the situation may continue, for how long, we just don't know. So, on behalf of us all, I would like to express great and sincere thanks for everything they have done this year and will continue to do in the coming months.

Sue Thorn

Samaritans' Purse Shoe Box Appeal 2020

A huge "Thank you" to all who have filled a box; also to those who have donated towards the costs; those who have provided gifts and knitted items and those who have helped by encouraging others to take part in this worthwhile venture.

So far we have collected over 150 boxes which were piled high in my study, as the church cannot be used during lockdown.

We have been provided with cartons which hold 12 boxes to make collecting and transporting easier. Because of the pandemic the collection, and thus the delivery to recipients, has been delayed, but I am assured that they will be on their way very soon.

Congratulations to Lottie who has come to the end of her training and now has a permanent position here in Easingwold. Lottie has been, and will continue to be a huge asset to the ministry team.

Lottie is now Assistant Curate of the Benefice of Easingwold with Raskelf and cross licenced to the Benefice of Skelton with Shipton and Newton on Ouse and in the Benefices of Alne; Brafferton with Pilmoor, Myton on Swale and Thormanby, Coxwold and Husthwaite; Crayke with Brandsby and Yearsley; Strensall; and the Forest of Galtres.

Mothers' Union News

News on MU Programme in Uganda

The community development coordinator, Barbara Mugisha, reports on the ongoing campaign in one diocese regarding female genital mutilation.

By using music and drama activities and seminars to discuss the issue, women have been empowered to speak out against this practice. Also men have become supportive in the community.

As a result marital conflict and separation due to FGM have greatly reduced. The girl-child has been protected and reports from schools and churches are encouraging particularly in the urban areas.

More work is required in the more rural areas and Mothers' Union members are determined to continue with the campaign.

ooOOoo

As reported last month a new magazine and prayer diary will start next year. Members will be given the details on this and the annual subscription by the end of December.

ooOOoo

Thank you to all who bought Christmas cards. I have some new cards for sale; birthday, sympathy etc. Please contact me if you would like some.

Many thanks, Margaret Summerscales

THE REV'D GABRIEL DEWHURST

A tribute by Gerald Edmondson-Jones

Iris and I knew Gabriel for very many years, ever since he retired when he and Mary came to live in Easingwold. In case people do not know, Gabriel started out his priestly life as a Benedictine monk in the Roman Catholic Church, before he became an Anglican vicar and then got married. He and I worked well together during the interregnum before John came, but I had to be careful that he did not introduce any unsuitable prayers out of his old Roman missal!!!

We used to go out for meals quite regularly, and we remember especially going to eat at the pub in Wass, where in the middle of the meal Gabriel decided to do press-ups in the middle of the dining room. The expressions of astonishment on the faces of guests and staff alike were to be seen to be believed.

We had many similar happenings both in our house at parties and at various outside eating places. He was great fun. For instance, we took him to the airport when they were going to America, where he managed to persuade them that the name on his ticket (Gabriel, his Benedictine adopted name) was the same as the name on his passport (George). No mean feat!

We will miss him greatly and look back with fondness on many happy times.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY AND ARMISTICE DAY

To comply with current Government guidelines, both Remembrance Sunday and Armistice Day had to be low-key events but were, nonetheless, duly commemorated. The Remembrance Sunday service was held in church and was available via Zoom. Wreaths normally carried to the altar by representatives of local organisations were placed there by Rev'd Margaret at the beginning of the service. Prior to the sounding of the Last Post, she then laid a wreath at the church memorial whilst Alfred Boddison read the names of the fallen from World Wars I and II. The service included a film showing the Armistice celebrations following the cessation of hostilities and the poem "In Flanders Fields" by Lt Col John McCrae was read by Greg Sweet over a backdrop of views from the Commonwealth War Graves. Following the service, the wreaths were then taken to and laid at the War Memorial in the Market Place.

On Armistice Day, a short service was held at the War Memorial when music was played by a piper and the two minutes silence was observed following the Last Post played by David Senior.

10.30am—Family Eucharist

HISTORY OF CHRISTINGLE

The Children’s Society’s first Christingle took place at Lincoln Cathedral in 1968, but Christingles themselves go back much further to the Moravian church in Germany.

At a children’s service in Marienborn in 1747, Bishop Johannes de Watteville looked for a simple way to explain the happiness that had come to people through Jesus, and created a symbol – the Christingle – to do this.

Each element of a Christingle has a special meaning and helps to tell the Christian story.

- * The orange represents the world
- * The red ribbon (or tape) symbolises the love and blood of Christ
- * The sweets and dried fruit represent all of God’s creations
- * The list candle represents Jesus’s light in the world, bringing hope to people living in darkness

CHURCH OPENING ARRANGEMENTS

Easingwold church is open for weekly congregational services and Raskelf church is open on the first Sunday of each month (see previous page for times of services). However, as we can only have a limited number of attendees at each service, you would need to pre-book your place by contacting Margaret a day or two before the relevant service (01347 821394).

There will not be any hymns and if you wish to have a service sheet you will need to bring your own which are available online. There will also be a few for collection for those not online but you will be requested to take these home and bring them back on subsequent weeks. Many of you know the words of the service so well that you may find a service sheet unnecessary.

Unfortunately it will not be possible to offer lifts to church or offer refreshments after the service

Hymn books are not accessible and all loose leaflets have had to be removed.

There are only certain pews available to sit on.

Prayer is at the heart of what the church offers to the community. At St John the Baptist and All Saints', we join with you in your prayers for family, friends and all whom you care for. There is currently no access to the church to visit the prayer corner to write down the names of those you are concerned for. If you would like prayers for yourself or another, or for those who, at this time, are struggling with anxiety, loneliness and isolation, our small, confidential and dedicated circle of people will pray for you. If you would like prayer, please contact Reverend Lottie Cranfield 07807 941528

Please include in your prayers this month:

- ◆ All Christmas planning and activities; that all may think of others less fortunate than themselves
- ◆ Those who will be alone this Christmas - the poor; the homeless; refugees; all those who feel forgotten and unloved
- ◆ Easingwold and District Churches Together – shared worship and activities
- ◆ Charities and individuals who support not only those especially in need at this time, but also throughout the year

Why are some church clock faces blue?

The clock face on the tower of Easingwold Parish Church is blue with gold numerals which is a familiar colour for many churches across the country including some in nearby parishes, eg, Northallerton, Thirsk, Boroughbridge and Brafferton , but why?

Henry VIII may be remembered for the destruction of many of our churches during the reformation but some suggest he was responsible for a decree that church clocks should be "blew with the signs upon them gilt".

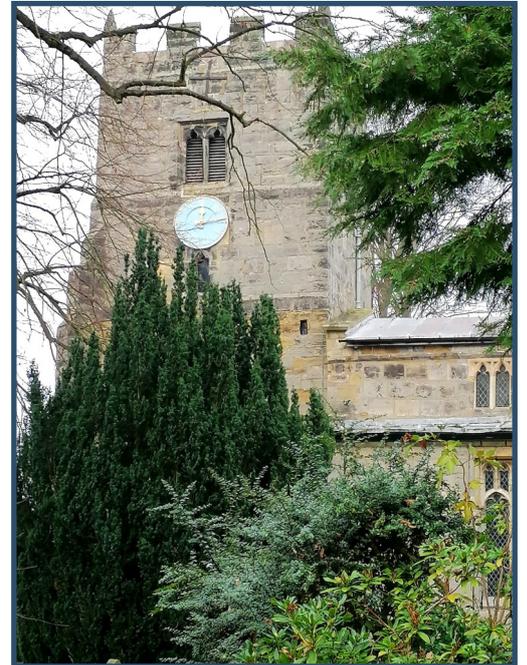

It is written in the bible 'that following God's command to Moses (Exodus 39) to make Aaron the priest "garments of blue with gold bells".

Perhaps the involvement of Henry VIII is mere folklore and the real reason for gold numerals on a background of sky blue is simply that it looks good!

Some may even say that there is a connection between time and the colour of the sky above us.

Perhaps you have your own ideas!

Tim Young

SERVICE ON LINE

Those of us who are able to access the Sunday service on line, either by Zoom or through the website, are so grateful to Margaret and Tim for making it available, and would like to say a huge "Thank you" to them both.

However, there are those in our community who don't have this access and the current situation is likely to continue for some time. Do you know someone near you, or perhaps a friend, who would really appreciate being given the readings and Margaret's sermon each week?

By going onto the website – easingwoldraskelfanglican.org – on a Sunday, and looking at the middle of the page, you will find the service. Scroll down, print off the relevant readings and sermon and hand it on. If you don't have time on Sunday it is there during the week.
