From Rev'd Richard Grant

Greetings All!

Here we are at December once again! We're all starting to think about Christmas, and Advent is upon us, along with its usual excitement, preparation, and perhaps a decent dose of panic as we think about all the things that need to happen before Christmas and the end of the year!

Advent is a season of anticipation, expectation and waiting. The word itself means arrival, and it's the time we set aside to prepare to celebrate the arrival of Jesus into our world, while also looking forward to his promised return. We look back with joy and forward with hope – two rather wonderful things to hold on to!

But how good are we, really, at waiting? We live in a world where we're used to things happening quickly. We get impatient when we're stuck in a queue at the supermarket, find ourselves checking our phones for news or messages, and can hardly bear it when a computer takes a few extra seconds to do what we want! Even when we're looking forward to something lovely, like a holiday, a family celebration or the arrival of someone special, we can be so keen for it to happen that we don't enjoy the anticipation.

I think that we've lost something of the art of waiting. Many of the best things in life take time. A garden doesn't burst into flower overnight, friendships usually grow through years of shared experiences, skills can take years to learn. Yet we're often so keen to get to the next thing that we don't give ourselves time to appreciate what's happening along the way.

This is one of the things Advent is trying to teach us. It's an invitation to slow down a little, to resist the temptation to rush headlong towards Christmas, and to make some space for God along the way. Rather than simply counting down the days until the presents are opened and the Christmas dinner is eaten, we are invited to use this time to think about what we're really waiting for.

Psalm 27 reminds us to:

'Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.'

I like the simplicity of those words. They remind us that waiting isn't about doing nothing, or just sitting around until something happens. It's about trusting God, having faith, and finding the courage to keep going – even when we don't know quite what lies ahead. And perhaps that's something we all need reminding of from time to time.

So, as we journey through December together, I hope we can all find a little time to pause and wait. Amidst the shopping, wrapping, cooking, carol singing and all the other things that make Christmas special for us, let's make time for one another, for worship, for prayer and, most importantly, for God.

Wishing you every blessing this Advent,

Richard

Do You Have Any Good News?

At a recent Bible Conversations meeting, the group decided they were disappointed that the main news outlets have few good news stories. We thought that our parish magazine could be a little light in the darkness but it would need the help of its readers.

With this in mind, the group is inviting you to share your good news. It can be a special occasion or family event, an achievement by you or someone you know or a thank you for an act of kindness.

Whatever it is, please let me or Sue Thorn know for inclusion in future magazines.

Visit to Cooper King Distillery

On Saturday 17th October, we visited Cooper King Distillery at Sutton-on-the-Forest. Many of the party were unaware that there was a distillery so close to us!!

We were given a very warm welcome followed by an informative, interesting, and entertaining talk of how the distillery came into being.

It was fascinating to hear how so many different plants (many grown locally) are used to flavour the different gins. Bespoke gins are made for local Michelin-star restaurateurs and large stores such as Fenwicks and Harvey Nichols.

We saw the whisky still which had been imported from Tasmania and went into the store to see the whisky maturing in casks from France, Spain, Portugal, and Tennessee. Since it is an artisan distillery no two batches of whisky are the same.

The afternoon rounded off with sampling small measures of two gins and two whiskies. Those who had driven to the venue were given samples to take home.

Overall, an excellent, lively, and informative afternoon. The knowledge and enthusiasm of the two presenters for their work was impressive. The vision, consideration for the environment and skill of the two young founders to start up such a venture and produce award-winning products is to be admired.

Our next event will be the

I shall not be organising this collection next year so if anyone feels able to offer their help in this way please let me know.

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP NOTES

We are all encouraged to read the Bible to help us in our spiritual journey. Where do we start? It is quite daunting. This is where the Bible Reading Fellowship can help us. 'New Daylight' is a daily reading of a short section from the Bible with an explanation of the reading. This helps the reader to understand it, and it makes life easier for us because we don't have to find it in the Bible ourselves.

Please contact Gina, either in Church or by phone on 01347 823843. She can show you examples and, if you decide you would like to try it, she will order it for you and deliver it. There are three copies a year, in January, May and September at a total cost of £16.20 for standard print or £19.56 for large print versions.

Gina Smith - 01347 823843—BRF Co-ordinator

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer is at the heart of what the church offers to the community, and the prayer corner in St John the Baptist and All Saints' is used regularly. It is a space where you are able to write the names of people you would like to have remembered in the book there. At St John the Baptist and All Saints', we join with you in your prayers for family, friends and all for whom you care.

If you would like prayers for yourself or another, or for those who, at this time, are struggling with anxiety, loneliness and isolation, our small, confidential and dedicated group of people will pray for you/them.

To be included in prayers, please contact Chris Peel on 01347 823548.

Please include in your prayers this month:

- ◊ All Christmas planning and activities; that all may think of others less fortunate than themselves
- ◊ Those who will be alone this Christmas - the poor; the homeless; refugees; all those who feel forgotten and unloved
- ◊ Christians Together Around Easingwold – shared worship and activities
- ◊ Charities and individuals - who try to support those especially in need at this time, but also providing support throughout the year

INTERCESSIONS

Every Sunday as part of our church service we have a time for Intercessions. These are prayers we say for others.

From our own experiences we all know how much it has meant to us in times of anxiety or distress to know that someone is praying for us. There are times when we keep vigil and light candles for captives and hostages whose whereabouts are not known and who are isolated from the world. We hope that they will know that we are holding them before God and that He will give them strength and courage to carry on.

Praying for others is a powerful way of expressing our love and concern for them showing that they are not alone and that others are thinking about them.

Jesus prayed at the end of his life for His disciples. He described them as God's gift to him during his earthly life. But He didn't end His intercession there. Instead He extended His prayers to include US.

How powerful is that? Have you ever been prayed for? How did it make you feel? We may not have had our requests or needs answered in the way that we wanted but we can be sure that God listens and that He is in charge. When we intercede for someone it must be done as an act of love and not as some magical cure.

There is an active prayer circle in our church. It is made up of members of the clergy and congregation and is completely confidential.

If you would like to be a member please speak to Chris, Sara or Nancy. If you feel the need to include someone you know in our prayers then ask their permission and pass on the details to one of the three already mentioned.

PRAYER IS AT THE HEART OF OUR WORSHIP

LET US USE IT TO INTERCEDE FOR OTHERS

Nancy, Sara and Chris

COMMUNITY BIBLE STUDY

Are you interested in joining a lively group who simply enjoy being together exploring deeper into God's Word for today?

Community Bible Study is rooted in prayer and we share a strong desire to help all people who want to understand the world through the Bible. This year, over 30 weeks, we will be looking at Daniel and Revelation, an apt study for our present times.

We meet at 9:30am in Kurt's Bar, Galtres Centre, where we offer a welcoming, safe environment for people to share and grow together in confidence starting on Wednesday 9th September and following the school year, finishing on 12th May 2027.

Why not come and try a session or two for free? If you decide to join us we ask for a small charge to cover refreshments, materials and room booking.

For further information please contact Sally by email to cbsi@dsign.plus.com

Remembrance Day/Armistice 2026

We recently commemorated Remembrance Day when we followed the town's tradition of a service at St John the Baptist and All Saints Church. A wreath was laid at the church memorial whilst the names of those from Easingwold who did not return from war were read. Following the Last Post, a two-minute silence was held.

The parade was then led by the University of York band to the Market Place War Memorial where we were joined by clergy and worshippers from other churches in the town for the civic wreath laying ceremony which included a second two-minute silence. We were blessed with good weather for the large crowd which attended to pay their respects and to remember those who gave the ultimate sacrifice in WWI, WWII and the many other conflicts that have taken place over the years.

A further service was held on Wednesday 11th November at the Market Place War Memorial for Armistice Day. A lone piper played a haunting rendition of Highland Cathedral before prayers were said by the Vicar. After the names of the fallen were read, a wreath was laid on behalf of the Easingwold Branch RBL. The Last Post sounded at 11.00am when we held a two-minute silence in remembrance of all those who perished during World War One.

FOR YOUR TOMORROW, WE GAVE OUR TODAY."

Christian Meditation

Please note that the meditation sessions normally held on Fridays at the Galtres Centre will not take place during the months of December and January. They will re-commence in February.

In today's culture this is an opportunity of being together in a reflective mood including silence. After a brief period of spoken reflection we experience some reflective music. We then enter a period of silent meditation for about 20-25 minutes. Some people use a 4-beat mantra such as 'Ma-ra-na-tha' (or Come Lord Jesus), said twice, (not out loud!) breathing in and then when breathing out. After this, another period of music precedes a final prayer. It doesn't suit everyone but it is something worth trying. Sometimes we have a few comments, even laughter, afterwards! In today's busyness people often find this simple and yet cathartic. Even children in school use silence as a restful experience!

Perhaps give it a try? Join us, you are most welcome.
